From Pudhuchery border for three days Jagat Guru Mahamandaleswar Swamy Yatindra Anand Giri Maharaj joined the rally on motor bike and addressed several large gatherings of fisher men and blessed all.

Poojanya Swamyjis address was on the threats to the borders, our Culture, Unity and development by different divisive forces from inside and outside the Country. Hisholiness created awarenes among the fishing folks to be Vigilant and not to become victims of terrorism internal,external and the trap of conversions to Christianity and Islam.Hisholiness blessed the fishing communities mentioning that they are soldiers without uniform protecting our beatiful long Coastal border of Bharat and wished them total development and happy life in a strong prosperous Bharat.

Ma. Golok Behari Rai Ji, the National General Secretary FANS who participated in the whole Yatra addressed the Fishing Communities to realize that not to day even thousands of years ago the Tamil speaking Bharathiya Kings like Cholas, Pansies and Cheras had gone long distances to Indonesia, Vietnam, Combodia, Malaysia, Singapore and such other countries and spread our Cultural Heritage and built large temples. The Tamil speaking people should feel proud in the rich traditions and heritage of our Nation and should not fall a pray to the force's trying to divide us in the name of language, caste and creed. He spoke that if there is unity and peace in the society the economic development will be possible and permanent.

Era. Meyappan, state President of FANS Tamilnadu explained about the Fans organisation and the concept of the Sagar Putra Yatra. The yatra went thru 9 coastal districts of Tamilnadu, Rameswaram, Kannyakumari, and in Kerala Thiruvanandapuram Kollam, Alapuzha districts and ended in Kochi Ernakulathappan mandir. At Vallikavu, Poojanya Amma, Her Holiness Matha Amirthanantha Mayi blessed the yatries and the AMMA's Ashram gave full hospitality to the the yatries.
